Mr. MacDonald & Mr. Harrison
for the Senior Receiver
Mr. Carhart for the Receiver
Ms. Moncur for GM.
Mr. Moldaver, Q.C. for the landlord. Galanda.

The landlord opposed the inclusion of ^{the 5} 'general' fixtures of assets discussed at para 12 of the Receiver's 7th report (Bulk storage silos; Cranes; chillers and cooling towers; compressed air system; trans formers) in the auction sale by Maynards because it says they are not 'tenant fixtures or trade fixtures'; rather, it says, they are true fixtures.

The landlord does not dispute that trade fixtures are part of the Senior Receiver's security and can be removed.

It became apparent that the real issue, and the landlord's real concern, is the extent of the Receiver's obligation to repair damage occasioned to the premises by the removal of the fixtures, and whether the Receiver is obligated to ~~restore all of the tenant's trade fixtures~~ restore the damaged premises to the state that existed prior to the intake/lifting of the trade fixtures (para 5 of the memo) or to remove all of the trade fixtures, if it removes any, as the tenant is required to do upon termination of the lease. ^{of assets}

The parties were in agreement that the extent of the ^{Receiver's} repair obligations, ^{in connection w/ the removal} (including the issue of whether all trade fixtures must be removed) should be left for another day.

The issue of whether Maynard can sell 4 of the 5 genres in dispute (the transformers are not dealt w/ today) is urgent, however. ^{Council} ~~of~~ for the Senior lenders advises that Maynards will not provide a minimum price guarantee for these assets unless it is advised today that they are included in the auction package.

Mr. Carhart ^{proposes} ~~advises~~ that the net minimum Guarantee, ^{of 4.3M} under the auction agreement with Maynards not be distributed, pending resolution of the scope of the Receiver's repair obligations w/ respect to the 4 genres of assets in issue. This is satisfactory to the Senior lenders. I note that the Senior lenders will derive the benefit of the auction proceeds, subject to costs of sale & receiver's fees & repair obligations. The Senior lenders support the inclusion of the 4 genes in the sale, even though there has been no determination of the scope of the Receiver's related repair obligation, and hence no ability to weigh proceeds of sale against related repair costs.

Mr. Moldaver has sought instructions, & the Receiver's proposal is acceptable to it.

Order accordingly to issue in the form of proceeds including the 4 genes of assets in the auction providing for no distribution of proceeds ^{without the consent of the landlord or further court order} until the scope of the Receiver's repair obligations in relation to the removal of the 4 genes of assets has been determined, and providing that, ^{unless otherwise consented to by the landlord or otherwise ordered by the court} such repair costs shall be paid before any amounts shall be distributed to the Senior lenders from the sale of assets by Maynards.

For greater certainty,
The Senior lender may bring a motion ^{for an order} ~~providing~~ permitting payment of proceeds to it before determination of the scope of the repair obligation, subject to an ~~obligation~~ obligation to reimburse the Receiver, or pay the landlord the amount determined, up to the amount distributed to it, as the case may be. Indeed, I expect that such a motion will be brought.

The order on which I have endorsed my fiat today is subject to the terms of this endorsement.

Mr. Moldaver QC.

Mr. Carhart for Receiver.

Mr. MacDonald for Senior Lenders.

This endorsement is made at a 9³⁰ initiated by counsel for the ~~Receiver~~ Sr. Lender to correct portions of my Nov 15, 2005 endorsement.

I indicated therein that the Sr. Lenders will derive the benefit of the auction proceeds.
In fact, a portion of those proceeds will be derived from assets over which GE has a first charge, & which pursuant to Rederman J's order of Oct 31, 2005 just (Tab 2A of this motion record) are to be paid to GE. The amount payable is defined in Rederman J's order as the Ophioc amount.

The net Minimum Guaranteed is not $4.3M; it is ^{greater than that} an amount ~~greater~~ ~~than that~~ ^{less} by the net return to the Receiver ~~of~~ from the GE assets.

My order does not restrict distributions or payments, ^{out of the proceeds of sale} except distributions to the Sr. lenders. ^{from} ^{the} ^{Maynard's}
^{auction}

The order on which I endorsed

Alexander J
(HOY)

on November 15
my fiat is also subject to this

endorsement.

I have "marked up" &
initialed to Nov 15
an order in this record to reflect the existence of this order. Counsel have advised that the form of order I signed on Nov 15 has not been issued & entered.
